

Natasha L. Wielogórska, BM, PgCert Med Edu, MRCS, is a senior plastic surgery trainee in the North West, England. She completed medical school at the University of Southampton and spent time as a Medical Officer in the Royal Airforce. After working as an anatomy demonstrator in Brighton and Sussex Medical school, she went on to complete her Core Surgical Training in the West Midlands and then Plastic Surgery Speciality Training in Oxford and the North West. She is regional representative for the Plastic Surgery Trainee Association (PLASTA) and the Specialist Advisory Committee (SAC). She is currently working in the fields of head and neck reconstruction, breast reconstruction, hand surgery, and trauma.

Chidi Ekwobi, BSc(Hons), MBBS, FRCS Glasc(Plast), is a plastic surgeon at The Royal Preston Hospital, Lancashire UK, with a specialist interest in microsurgery. He received a BSc in biochemistry and a medical degree from St Bartholomew's and The Royal London School of Medicine and Dentistry. He received a MSc in surgical science from University College London, University of London. He completed his plastic surgery training in the North West Deanery in England, followed by fellowships in microsurgery at The Royal Marsden Hospital, London and Addenbrookes Hospital, Cambridge. As well as his interest in head and neck surgery and breast reconstruction, he acts as the lead clinician for burns and trauma.